A Runaway.

Just about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon Ben Hampton, colored, was driving a horse belonging to Milt. Coleman down Main street, attached to a wagon, and when near the corner of Ann street one of the bolts which holds the shaft in the clip attached to the front axle, broke and let the shafts fall on the horse's heels, causing it to take fright and run away. Ben held on manfully to the lines and guided the horse as best he could until in front of the Fire Engine House, where the wagon was upset and he was thrown out. He turned a somersault and lit on his back and shoulders, but still clung to the lines. The horse freed himself from the wagon and pulled away from him, continued on down the street, upset a surrey in front of Mangan & Darnell's stable, ran around a square and was caught on the return. Ben became insensible from his tumble and was carried into Messrs. L. B. Marshall & Co.'s office, where Dr. Gober attended him and he was soon all right with the exception of severe bruises, no bones having been broken.

The Evolution.

Of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. To get the true remedy see that it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only. For sale by all the leading druggists.
